

Meet Juliet Nnajofofor-Uyi: WorldStudentAdvisors in Nigeria

WorldStudentAdvisors provides personal, one-to-one guidance to students considering international education. In Nigeria, Juliet Nnajofofor-Uyi is based in Lagos and works directly with the WorldStudentAdvisors Hub to support students as they consider their study options and progress through their study abroad plans.

Personal Support in Nigeria

Juliet provides a local point of contact for students in Nigeria, bringing experience and professional support to students considering international education.

She works directly with the WorldStudentAdvisors Hub so that students can combine local support in Nigeria with access to the wider WorldStudentAdvisors team.

Professional Standards

Juliet and members of the WorldStudentAdvisors Hub team hold the UK Agent and Counsellor Certification Award. This provides students with access to counsellors who have undertaken professional training relevant to international education.

Study Opportunities

Juliet supports Nigerian students considering a range of international education opportunities. These include boarding schools, football summer camps, undergraduate degrees, master's programmes and PhD study.

The range of support allows students at different stages of education to discuss their options with a local contact while drawing on the wider resources of the WorldStudentAdvisors team.

One-to-One Guidance

The WorldStudentAdvisors approach is based on personal support from a student's own counsellor. Juliet works with the wider team to help Nigerian students consider their options and progress through their study abroad journey with a named point of contact.

The Key Message

Nigerian students considering international education can receive local, one-to-one guidance from Juliet Nnajofofor-Uyi in Lagos, supported by the wider WorldStudentAdvisors team.

Support is available across different stages and levels of education, from boarding schools and football summer programmes to undergraduate, master's and PhD study. The aim is to give each student a named point of contact while drawing on the resources and experience of the wider WorldStudentAdvisors team.
