

Meet Madalitso Dube: WorldStudentAdvisors in Malawi

Madalitso Dube is the WorldStudentAdvisors Director for Malawi, based in Blantyre. He provides a local point of contact for students and families considering international education and works closely with the WorldStudentAdvisors UK head office.

Local Support in Malawi

Students and families in Malawi can discuss international study opportunities with Madalitso locally while also drawing on the wider support of the WorldStudentAdvisors team in the UK.

Choosing a Course and University

WorldStudentAdvisors helps students consider suitable course and university options before progressing with an application. The aim is to provide clear guidance so that students and their families can make informed decisions about international study.

Application and Visa Guidance

Support can continue through the university application process and, where relevant, preparation for the UK Student visa process. WorldStudentAdvisors can help students understand the information and supporting documents required, while admissions and immigration decisions remain with the university and the relevant immigration authority.

International Study Opportunities

The podcast particularly refers to students considering study in the UK, while also recognising that students may be interested in other international study destinations. Madalitso works with students and their families as they consider these opportunities and plan their next steps.

The Key Message

Students and families in Malawi considering international education can receive local guidance from Madalitso Dube in Blantyre, supported by the WorldStudentAdvisors UK head office.

Support includes course and university selection, the application process and, where relevant, preparation for the UK Student visa process, giving students a local point of contact while drawing on the wider WorldStudentAdvisors team.
